Promo Health Cards

A Healthy Way to Promote Your Business

A Unique Promotional Item — one that shows you care by providing a clinical thermometer in a convenient card while at the same time, promoting your company and brand.

The Promo Health Card is the size of a credit card and carries a personal clinical thermometer. A custom promo card can feature your name, logo, and message.

The NexTemp clinical thermometer in the promo health card uses innovative Liquid Crystal Technology to deliver unsurpassed accuracy.

NexTemp thermometers are trusted and valued by health care professionals worldwide. It's an incredible give-away and a constant reminder of your company or brand. Promo Health Cards are the ultimate in saying "you care about their health."
